JESUS There is Power in the Name!

JESUS: THERE IS POWER IN THE NAME

The Power of God

We cannot have a right conception of God unless we think of Him as all-powerful, as well as all-wise. He who cannot do what He will and perform all His pleasure cannot be God. As, God has the will to resolve what He deems good, so has He power to execute His will.

The power of God is that ability and strength whereby He can bring to pass whatsoever He pleases, whatsoever His infinite wisdom may direct, and whatsoever the infinite purity of His life and action to all the perfections of the Divine nature. How vain would be the external counsels, if power did not step in to execute them. Without power, His mercy would be but people pity, His promises an empty sound, His threatening's a mere scarecrow. God's power is like Himself: infinite, eternal, incomprehensible; it can neither be checked, restrained, nor frustrated by the creature. – Stephen Charnock

What is impossible to God? Not that which is difficult to His power, but that which is contrary to His nature. – Ambrose

The power of God is not diminished when it is said that He cannot die and cannot sin; for if He could do these things, His power would be less. – R.B. Kuiper

We must learn to cease from measuring the power of God by our own, and reasoning from one to the other. – Marcus Dods

We should never tire of the thought of God's power. – Donald Grey Barnhouse

In the New Testament is not the believers who tremble at the power of Satan, but the demons who tremble at the power of God. – Stephen Travis

Power is also used as a name of God, "the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power" (Mark 14:62), that is, at the right hand of God. God and power are so inseparable that they are reciprocated. As His essence is immense, not to be confined in place; as it is eternal, not to be measured in time; so, it is Almighty, not to be limited in regard of action. – Stephen Charnock
